SUBJECT: CHARLES THOMPSON

Dear Jere:

This is a follow up on the above individual whose application shows similarity to the name of an individual who is in our Ineligible Volunteer file.

Claire Miller stated that she talked with you on August 5, 1994. At that time, you indicated that Mr. Thompson probably was not the same man, but since he would not respond to the council's request for more information, you were going to delete him from the council roster and not use him as a merit badge counselor.

We would like for you to confirm that in writing, so we can add it to his file.

Your cooperation is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Camp Leader Arrested on Sex Charge

A 24-year-old graduate student was arrested today by FBI agents on one charge of sodomy and five charges of committing perverted sex acts with young boys at a summer camp he operated on the Andrews Air Force Base reservation.

Arrested at his home in the 10000 block of Dunkirk drive, Silver Spring, Md., was Charles Phillip Thompson, the FBI said. The acts were committed at Camp Yocomico, a summer camp for the children of Air Force personnel, between June 19 and August 18, the FBI complaint said. Thompson, who is single, was the director of the camp.

A husky, well-dressed six-footer with a short haircut, Thompson appeared wearing dark glasses before United States Commissioner Samuel W. H. Meloy in Upper Marlboro, Md. He was accompanied by two FBI agents. He waived preliminary hearing and was ordered held for action of the Federal Court in Baltimore. Bond was set at $1,000. Thompson quickly paid it in cash and left.

The FBI said Thompson, a native of Baltimore and a long-time resident of the Washington area, also is active in Boy Scout work, has an IQ of 175 and is an accomplished linguist, speaking German, Italian and Spanish. He graduated from the University of Maryland in 1961 with a B.A. degree and was scheduled to receive his master's degree in languages next February.

Last summer was Thompson's first year as director of Camp Yocomico but he had been a counselor there for five previous summers, the FBI said.
