Dear Skipper:

I am enclosing a confidential record sheet on Richard L. Rineer, whose name is to be placed in the confidential file.

The District Executive and I were advised of the charge against this individual within hours of the time of the arrest on June 4, 1962. Proper measures have been taken to proceed with the resignation of this individual from the Scouting movement that is indicated by the enclosed resignation letter and registration card.

The Pastor of the church that sponsors this unit has taken a very active interest in this case, and the unit committee is informed of this situation and a meeting was called with the parents of the Scouts attending to assure them that all measures are being taken to adjust the situation and to avoid the occurrence of malicious rumors. You will also notice that there is a copy of a news release that appeared in a County newspaper regarding this matter.

If there is any further information that you may require, please don't hesitate to make such a request.

Sincerely,

John A. Veldhoven

Teacher Is Jailed

PROSPECT PARK. — A Boy Scout leader and school teacher was ordered held without bail for court on four morals charges Tuesday.

The man was identified as Richard Rineer, 27, 364 700 block 10th Avenue.

He was committed to Broadmeadow Jail in Boston Tuesday afternoon after a hearing before Justice of the Peace Elwood W. Richter.

Rineer was formerly a teacher in the Interboro Joint School District and scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 169.

Dr. James Burt, superintendent of Interboro schools, said Rineer had submitted his resignation effective at the end of the current school term.

He said Rineer was suspended until his resignation becomes effective.

Rineer taught at the Pennsylvania Avenue School in Prospect Park, Dr. Burt said.

Rineer was scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 169. The Rev. Robert Nagle, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Woodford, which sponsors the troop, said Rineer is not presently scoutmaster, but declined to say as of what date.
