Dear Mr. Beveau:

You may recall the correspondence you and I had approximately a year ago in regard to the above Scouter.

Mr. Stokes's registration as a Committee Member in Troop 1008 was approved on a two year probationary basis.

Since one year has elapsed, we would appreciate it if you would be good enough to write us a letter regarding this man's character and leadership performance.

Thanks very much.

Dear Mr. Deveau:

We recently received an application for registration from the above Scouter. This man's name was submitted to us for the Confidential File in October 1968.

We will approve his registration as Committee Member in Troop 1008 and again place him on two years probation. In this way you can observe him and at the end of each year, we will again write you for a report on his character and leadership performance. When the two year probationary period is ended, your report will be the deciding factor in our decision to remove his name from the Confidential File.

Sincerely,

Paul I. Ernst, Director

REPORT OF JULY 29 INCIDENT IN CROW CAMPSITE, CAMP KEN-ETIWA-PEC

This involved Scout [REDACTED], [REDACTED] West Orange, N.J. (age 13) and Provisional Scoutmaster Paul Stokes, 347 Amherst Street, East Orange, N. J.

About 9:30 PM the Senior Patrol Leader, two Assistant Senior Patrol Leaders, and the Patrol Leaders were told to convene for a Green Bar meeting which lasted about ten minutes. Prior to the announcement of the meeting Assistant Senior Patrol Leader [REDACTED] had been told by the Scoutmaster to stay after the meeting was over. No specific reason was given at the time.

At the conclusion of the Green Bar meeting, the Scout sat on the Scoutmaster's bunk. The Scoutmaster put his arm around him and talked to the Scout about how the Scout's conduct should be improved - table manners, laughing at meals, etc. He started to tickle the Scout on the legs. The Scout protested that he was tired and wanted to leave so got up. The Scoutmaster told him to come back as he had not finished talking to him. Both then sat down again on the Scoutmaster's bunk. The Scoutmaster told the Scout to move closer. When this was done the Scoutmaster started to tickle the Scout's legs again and go up inside the Scout's shorts. He played with the Scout until there was an emission. When this was over he asked the Scout if he were mad at him. The boy, afraid something else might happen, said, "No".

The Assistant Provisional Scoutmaster was on his day off.

At no time during the incident were the trousers opened or removed.

The Scout left the tent and rather than move back to his own tent where his tent mate, Stuart Weiss, was a heavy sleeper, moved into the tent of David Stern and Michael Korba. The Scout was afraid he might be approached again before the night was over.

Scout Stuart Weiss along with Scouts Michael Korba and David Stern were told of the experience by [REDACTED].

The matter was brought to the attention of Program Director Brian Archimbaud and Director Arthur Koepfel immediately after breakfast.

Provisional Scoutmaster Paul Stokes, when faced with the story at first said it was not really that way but when pressed for details, paused and indicated that that was about it. Paul's statement was made in the presence of Archimbaud and Koepfel.

Scout [REDACTED] has read the above and agrees with the statements as noted above, the only exception being the last paragraph. He was not present when Paul Stokes was meeting with Archimbaud and Koepfel. [REDACTED] ...
