PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL
Re: David G. Hendricksen

Dear Mr. Klapp:

In February you wrote us to the effect that Mr. Hendricksen's name should be included in our files. We acknowledged your letter on March 5 and requested you to complete a confidential record sheet. On April 5, we followed this up with a second request for the confidential record sheet.

To date we have not received this and we are again enclosing a confidential record sheet requesting that you complete it and return it to us as soon as possible. Without this information, we are in a very difficult position of being able to prevent Mr. Hendricksen's future registration unless we have the needed information with which to identify him.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Delmer H. Wilson
Boy Scouts of America
New Brunswick, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Re: David O. Hendricksen

Please remove the name of David O. Hendricksen - now on record as Advisor of Explorer Post #88, South Haven, Michigan - from the roster and place in the confidential file.

It has been called to our attention that Mr. Hendricksen has a previous record of perversion, indecent exposure and treatment. Verification of apprehension, conviction and fine, as of 5 August 1960 in Benton Harbor, Michigan, is basis for this request.

We have Mr. Hendricksen's written resignation and he is no longer working with the Post. This is for your information and action.

Scoutingly yours,

Clifford A. Klapp
Scout Executive
